At the Loyne Specialist School we agree to:

- Provide your child with opportunities that will support them to reach their full potential
- Safeguard your child following our own policies and procedures
- Let you know about any concerns or problems which impact on your child's progress, behaviour and attendance
- Celebrate your child's learning successes in whatever form this takes
- Regularly inform you and update you about the school and its activities
- Provide regular appropriate homework opportunities for your child
- Ensure you are welcomed into school and provided with regular opportunities to meet with key staff
- Set challenging expectations in the development of cognition, communication, movement, social and mental health
- Engage with you in constructive dialogue about your child and their progress
- Provide opportunities for you to contribute to the wider life of the school
- Use Class Dojo for school communication at least 3 times per week
